This villa is located in Los Molinos, on the edge of a green area. Built in 2004, this modern detached villa is distributed over two floors, offering open views and a glimpse of the sea and is situated just a few minutes drive away from Benitachell town and Javea golf course. The spacious and bright accommodation consists of an entrance porch, kitchen with breakfast bar, a living/dining room with a feature fireplace with glazed doors leading out to a covered terrace. A utility room, two double bedrooms with fitted wardrobes and the house shower room complete the ground floor. From the living room there is a wide staircase leading up to the master bedroom which includes fitted wardrobes, an en-suite bathroom and double doors to a large private terrace. Externally, the easy maintenance garden is walled and gated and the villa has an allocated parking space. This villa has been well maintained and the specification includes mains gas central heating, double glazed windows, satellite television, wi-fi and an alarm. The communal pool is shared with the three other properties in this quiet cul-de-sac.
